Press Release

Gütt Olk Feldhaus advises DPE Deutsche Private Equity on its sale of Elevion-group to ČEZ

Munich, July 7, 2017 – The law firm Gütt Olk Feldhaus has advised DPE Deutsche Private Equity on its sale of the Elevion-group to ČEZ, a Czech energy group. The transaction is subject to antitrust approvals and is expected to close in summer 2017.

With approx. 1,800 employees, Elevion is one of the leading multi-technical services providers to commercial and industrial buildings and facilities in Germany. The total output of the Elevion-group amounts to more than EUR 330 million (2017e). ČEZ group is the largest energy company in Central and Eastern Europe and the largest electricity producer in the Czech Republic and is listed on the Prague and Warsaw stock exchanges.

DPE Deutsche Private Equity is an independent German investment company that invests in SMEs in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Founded in 2007 in Munich, DPE has since successfully launched three funds. DPE thus manages total assets of EUR 1.2 billion.
