Press Release

Gütt Olk Feldhaus advises Powertrans on the Acquisition of Lloyd Dynamowerke

Munich, April 20, 2017 – Gütt Olk Feldhaus has advised Powertrans Invest GmbH on the acquisition of the assets of Lloyd Dynamowerke GmbH. Powertrans acquired the traditional company based in Bremen by way of an asset deal from the insolvency administrator. The parties have agreed to keep the purchase price confidential.

Lloyd Dynamowerke filed for insolvency in mid-January 2017. With the new investor on board 136 of a total of 220 jobs could be preserved. Lloyd Dynamowerke, founded in 1915, is one of the oldest companies in the Hanseatic City of Bremen. The company specializes in the development and production of large custom-made electric motors for industrial, often stock-listed customers.

Shareholder of Luxembourg based Powertrans is Dr. Sepp Lachenmaier, who has been active for over 25 years as a consultant and restructuring specialist for leading private equity funds and investors.

Gütt Olk Feldhaus has recently advised the parent company of Powertrans on the successful sale of the packing machine manufacturer Rovema to the private equity fund HQ Equita and on the acquisition of 8 seasons design GmbH.
