Press Release

Gütt Olk Feldhaus advises Alpina Partners on the sale of its participation in VIA optronics to IMI

Munich, August 16, 2016 – The German business law firm Gütt Olk Feldhaus advised Alpina Partners on the sale of its shares in VIA optronics GmbH, a leading optical bonding and display solutions provider, to Integrated Micro-Electronics Inc., Philippines, a publicly listed stock corporation.

Integrated Micro-Electronics Inc., one of the leading global providers of electronics manufacturing services and power semiconductor assembly and test services, will acquire a 76 percent stake in VIA optronics for a purchase price of EUR 47.4 million. Company founder, Jürgen Eichner, will retain a 24 percent ownership. Alpina Partners, which has been a shareholder in the company since June 2010, is selling its entire 55% shareholding as part of the transaction.

Alpina Partners is a London and Munich based investment firm with over EUR 300 million in assets under management. Alpina focuses on European growth companies with a strong technical USP.

Legal advisor to the seller:

Gütt Olk Feldhaus (Munich): Attila Oldag, Dr. Kilian Helmreich (both Partners) and Katalin Siklosi (Associate).
