Press Release

Dr. Kilian Helmreich joins Gütt Olk Feldhaus as new partner from Latham & Watkins

Munich, 19 October 2015 – Dr. Kilian Helmreich will join Munich law firm Gütt Olk Feldhaus as partner in the corporate/M&A practice group. Kilian will join from the Munich office of Latham & Watkins LLP where he was a partner in the corporate department. He is specialized in domestic and cross-border M&A and private equity transactions where he advises German and international financial and strategic investors.

Dr. Kilian Helmreich has an impressive track-record. At Latham & Watkins LLP he advised, among others, private equity investors Bain Capital and Onex on a number of transactions, Equinox on the acquisition of Adler Modemärkte AG, VM Capital on the acquisition of a minority stake in Rioglass and Paragon Partners on a cross-border carve-out. He also advised Hellman & Friedman on the management participation program for Scout24 group, on the sale of Friendscout24 and assisted, most recently, with the IPO of Scout24 AG.

"Kilian has a broad experience in the areas of M&A and private equity and an outstanding reputation as transaction lawyer and deal maker. His scope of work and his personality fit our team but, moreover, our clients ideally" say the partners of Gütt Olk Feldhaus. "I have been observing Gütt Olk Feldhaus since their establishment and am impressed by their dynamics, the excellent quality of their work and the partnership spirit says Dr. Kilian Helmreich. "I am delighted to contribute to the further development of the firm."

The JUVE handbook German commercial law firms 2014/2015 mentions Dr. Kilian Helmreich as frequently recommended lawyer for private equity. The Legal 500 Germany 2015 recommends Kilian for private equity transactions as well.

The partners of the Munich-based boutique law firm Gütt Olk Feldhaus, which was founded in 2011, previously worked for many years at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP and in the case of Sebastian Olk also at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP. The key areas of expertise of Gütt Olk Feldhaus include corporate, M&A and finance, with particular focus on mid cap transactions and cross border aspects.
