Attila Oldag joins Gütt Olk Feldhaus as New Partner

Munich, August 1, 2013 – Gütt Olk Feldhaus strengthens its practice with Attila Oldag (37) who joins as new partner from Hengeler Mueller in Munich where he worked as counsel.

Attila Oldag specializes in M&A and private equity transactions. He primarily advises German and international corporate clients as well as financial sponsors. During the current year at Hengeler Mueller, he advised, among others, EQT on the sale of Springer Science+Business Media to BC Partners, CVC on the acquisition of ista and Bregal Capital on the acquisition of LR Health & Beauty Systems together with Quadriga Capital. In previous years, he was a member of the teams who advised E.ON on the sale of Open Grid Europe, Rolls-Royce on the public tender offer for Tognum and Hochtief on the takeover offer from ACS.

"Attila is the ideal complement to our firm. He has worked on numerous high-profile transactions and has extensive experience in the field of M&A and private equity with an international background. We are very much looking forward to continue the expansion of our firm in partnership with him," said the partners of Gütt Olk Feldhaus.

"I am impressed by the dynamic development of Gütt Olk Feldhaus" says Attila Oldag. "The team has gained a remarkable reputation within a very short period of time, and I am happy to contribute to Gütt Olk Feldhaus' continued growth and success."

The founding partners of Gütt Olk Feldhaus and Attila Oldag were first acquainted with each other from their time together at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP. Attila Oldag was then part of the team of Dr. Hans-Jörg Ziegenhain who moved from Freshfields to Hengeler Mueller in 2006. In 2010, Attila Oldag worked with Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP in New York. In 2007, he was seconded as part of a client secondment to the legal department of Siemens AG.

Attila Oldag was mentioned as a frequently recommended lawyer in the field of corporate law in JUVE handbook of commercial law firms 2011/2012.

The partners of the Munich-based boutique law firm Gütt Olk Feldhaus previously worked for many years at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP and in the case of Sebastian Olk also at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP. Gütt Olk Feldhaus' key areas of expertise include corporate, M&A and finance, with particular focus on mid cap transactions and cross border aspects.
